

Unsearchable Riches of Grace

1. The thief hung con - demned - to die on the cru - el tree;
 2. The man bent on death and hurt to the church of God.
 3. From depths of un - search - a - ble stores of sov' reign grace

He lived a life of crime and sin, now end - ing bit - ter - ly;
 He held the let - ters in his hand and would have killed them all
 To bound - less heights, the great - est scenes of mer - cy e'er dis - played.

At first he mocked and cursed the Christ, 'til the Spir - it changed his heart,
 But Christ shone forth in - to his life and struck him on that road.
 Here in this life, we on - ly catch a glimpse of Him by faith.

What could have caused the Lord to leave on such a man His mark?
 The chief of sin - ners saved by grace is now in Christ's a - bode.
 Some day we all will un - der - stand, we'll see Him face to face.
